Weill Center for Metabolic Health

Faculty Position in Metabolic Disease

The Weill Center for Metabolic Health at Weill Cornell Medicine is seeking outstanding candidates for one or more full-time tenure-track basic scientist or physician-scientist faculty positions with research interests related to cellular or whole-body metabolism. The Weill Center for Metabolic Health is an interdisciplinary research center of faculty with a shared interest in metabolic disease. We seek outstanding candidates at all ranks engaged in high-impact, cutting-edge research using physiological, molecular, and biochemical approaches to address critical questions in metabolism, diabetes, obesity and the interface between metabolism and other disorders such as lipids and cancer. Generous startup resources are available. For physicians, a hospital appointment at NewYork-Presbyterian/Weill Cornell Medicine will be available.

Diversity is one of Weill Cornell Medicine's core values and is essential to achieving excellence in patient care, research, and education. We welcome applications from candidates who share our commitment to fostering a culture of fairness, equity, and belonging. Weill Cornell Medicine is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer, providing equal employment opportunities to all qualified applicants without regard to race, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, color, age, religion, protected veteran or disability status, or genetic information.

Interested applicants should send a single PDF to WCMetabolism@med.cornell.edu containing:

1. Cover letter
2. Curriculum Vitae
3. Brief overview of current and future research interests
4. Names and contact information of at least three referees

Applicants should request letters of support be sent separately, from the referees' own email addresses, to: WCMetabolism@med.cornell.edu. Applications will not be considered complete until three letters are received. The Weill Center for Metabolic Health will not solicit letters.

All material, including letters of support, should be received by March 15, 2021, when evaluation of applications by an interdepartmental search committee will commence. Applications will be considered until the position is filled.
