Representatives of nine agencies took part in the annual 2019 Fraud Fair hosted by Senior Medicare Patrol (SMP) in May. They provided the more than 100 older adults who visited the fair at the Southeast Atlas Regional Senior Center in Chicago with valuable information on how to protect, detect and report fraud.

Attendees also were able to make use of bins to securely shred sensitive and confidential documents.

Robin Tillotson, director of the senior center, and Michael Svet, SMP coordinator at White Crane Wellness Center helped to coordinate the successful event. Interns from the Administration for Community Living assisted.

Jordan Stewart, a volunteer at White Crane Wellness Center, gave a presentation on SMP and fraud. Exhibitors were:
