Staff, Board and Advisory Council Members Surprise Jon Lavin with Retirement Party

The upcoming 14th annual AgeOptions event, Celebrating Leadership, will honor Jonathan Lavin and his 40 years leading AgeOptions. But convinced that one retirement party isn't enough, AgeOptions staff, Board of Directors and Advisory Council members, and Lavin family members surprised Jon at a retirement party September 17.

The early evening event at the Little Gem restaurant in Oak Park included music by a Rockabilly singer and tributes from AgeOptions COO Diane Slezak, Board Chair Brad Winick, other Board and Advisory Council members, AgeOptions staff and Jon and Robin Lavin's son, Alex. AgeOptions staff members also presented Jon with a signed group photo of the staff.

Jon will retire October 31 – his 40th anniversary with AgeOptions.

Happy retirement, Jon! We'll miss you.
