Diane Slezak Receives “60 over 60” Award

Diane Slezak, AgeOptions president and CEO, was one of 60 individuals over the age of 60 to be honored by the Celebrating Seniors Coalition. Each May the coalition honors inspirational community members during Celebrating Seniors Week, a celebration recognizing the vital role older individuals play in our lives.

The Celebrating Seniors Resource Guide describes Diane as an optimist and states “Her greatest work challenge is assisting elders by providing information, and advocating to anticipate future needs and prepare before emergencies. She believes everybody has talents. The question becomes how best to use them (which brings happiness), and to savor one’s wisdom. She loves working out with her gym friends. She considers her perennials garden another great passion and her therapy.”
