AgeOptions Honors Community Volunteers At 44th Annual Recognition Luncheon

AgeOptions honored 44 volunteers from throughout the Chicago area for their service and dedication to older adults in their communities at the 44th Annual Luncheon and Volunteer Recognition. BlueCross BlueShield of Illinois generously sponsored the event, which took place June 13 at the William Tell Holiday Inn in Countryside.

Nineteen of the volunteers were nominated by organizations and communities throughout the Chicago area, where they provide a variety of services for older adults. An additional 25 honorees volunteer in five AgeOptions programs: Caring Together, Living Better, Colbert
