

Comedy Show June 16th

Headliner: Ken Evans

Bringing a boy-next-door persona to the stage, Ken has an observational style of comedy that relates to every audience member. His energy is electric and his act is very visual, bringing his comedy to life with his command of the stage.

Evans has appeared on NBC's "Ed", Caroline's Comedy Hour, and Last Comic Standing. He's been a studio guest of the Bob and Tom show and XM Radio. He's opened for and worked with some of the biggest names in entertainment such as: Joan Rivers, Tim Allen, Ellen DeGeneres, Larry the Cable Guy, Ron White, Weird Al, & Drew Carey.

Also appearing Pete Daniels

Over the last 7 years, Peter has been working the major comedy clubs throughout the US. He has a laid-back style that quickly connects with his audiences. He talks about everyday problems that we all experience like; Child rearing, relationship issues, and dealing with dysfunctional in-laws
