

Comedy Show May 19th

Headliner: Bryan Cork

Laughter is the best medicine. Bryan has been doing his special form of healing for almost twenty years now. This strange and unusual journey started for Bryan as an actor. For a dozen years he did appearances as the Amazing Spider-Man for Marvel Comics. But alas, the demands of wearing spandex eventually took it's toll. (You try wearing spandex when you are 35 and see how you look.) So his career took a new direction. A comedy door opened up, and Bryan crashed through it like he was running from the police.

Also appearing Katie Meiners

Katie is a Chicago comedian making a name for herself in a short time on the scene. Her observational humor and wicked punchlines make her a crowd favorite!
