FACULTY FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM IN ISRAEL

DATE

May 30, 2026 -

June 10, 2026

Experience Israel: A Scholarly Exploration of Discovery and Exchange

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Faculty Fellowship in Israel Program offers a unique opportunity for academic and professional growth, inviting you to immerse yourself in Israel's dynamic culture, innovative cutting-edge spirit, rich history, and diverse society. Through direct interactions with individuals and communities, you'll engage in open and respectful discourse with experts and everyday people, gaining unparalleled insights into the country's complexities, challenges, and contributions.

As a fellow, you'll have the opportunity to explore Israel's diverse society firsthand, providing a deeper understanding of the country and meet with experts in your discipline to foster ongoing cross-cultural collaboration. During this critical time, you'll witness Israel's resilience and contributions to the world, returning to your campus with fresh knowledge, connections, and personal experience in the region.

PROGRAM GOALS

Collaboration, Innovation & Discovery • Interdisciplinary Dialogue • Networking Opportunities • Becoming a Voice and an Advocate for Israel

ELIGIBILITY

Faculty Fellowship Program in Israel is open to full-time academics at recognized US universities and learning institutions. This intensive program is specifically designed for non-Jewish academics who have not previously traveled to Israel.
