

A Book by CHARLIE JENKINS in Association With RAY DAY

A PIONEERING SPIRIT

As an Our Lady of Providence High School 1957 graduate and 50-year radio sports broadcaster, Charlie Jenkins really knows basketball.

As a 1957 PHS classmate of Charlie Jenkins, teacher, development director, and now school archivist, Ray Day really knows Providence.

A PIONEERING SPIRIT is the fulfillment of Charlie's "retirement dream" to tell the story of Providence basketball. Complete with 244 pages and over 200 photos, it traces the boys' program from the school's opening in 1951, and girls' program from its birth in 1973.

For just $20 (plus $7.00 shipping via USPS-Priority), A PIONEERING SPIRIT deserves a place on every southern Indiana basketball lover's coffee table or bookshelf.

NOTE: All profits will be donated to the Providence High School Athletic Department.
