PHS Girls' Basketball

LADY PHS PIONEERS

PROVIDENCE GIRLS BASKETBALL ACADEMY WARRIORS

THE PGBA Warriors offers the very best in basketball development for students in the New Albany Deanery. With a variety of offerings to meet your skill/age level, this is an opportunity for all to learn, have fun and compete!

This season we have offerings for youth of the New Albany Deanery in grades 3rd-8th grade. These offerings are designed to prepare youth basketball players for their deanery season and eventually high school basketball.

All practices and skill sessions will focus on fundamentals and team play. Players will learn the Lady Pioneer system on both offense and defense.

Cost: 3/4 grade $250

5/6 grade $300

7/8 grade $300

*All teams are tryout based and will keep 10-12 players. If we have a large number try out, we will have two teams for each grade division.

If teams decide to play in more tournaments, players will share cost of extra tournaments.

If player can only commit to part of the season, pro-ration is available.

PROVIDENCE

Program Director

Providence Girls Basketball Head Coach Brad Burden will serve as the director for the PGBA. Coach Burden is in his 11th season at the helm of the Lady Pioneers, and his commitment to excellence is paying off dividends in the building of PHS Girls Basketball into a powerhouse in the area. The Lady Pioneers were back-to-back sectional and regional champs in 2015-16. From 2014-18 the Lady Pioneers have been one of the top programs in Indiana and have the highest win total in Clark and Floyd County during that span. Coach Burden has coached at the AAU, high school, college, and semi-pro levels. In 15 years of coaching high school basketball, Coach Burden has coached 8 players who have gone on to play in college and his 130 wins ranks him as the winningest active girls coach in Clark and Floyd counties.
