

2023 Glatzer Memorial Weekend

Presentation Descriptions:

- Friday after-dinner Presentation: Celebration and Reflection on Israel's 75th - Yossi will locate Israel's remarkable achievements and its future promise in both a historical and a contemporary political context, acknowledging the pride, on the one hand, and the uncertainty and discouragement, on the other, that many in Israel and abroad feel.
- D'var Torah on Shabbat morning during services: The Torah of Climate Change
- Shabbat, post-kiddush talk: Boots on the Ground: Israel's Activism on Global Warming - Learn more about what Israeli environmentalists are actually doing to combat global warming.
- Motzei Shabbat-Saturday evening dinner talk: Environmentalism and Hessed (goodness) - How Israel's environmental activities, around the globe, are also demonstrating, seeding, and exporting Hessed...why climate action is an ideal vehicle for that.
- Sunday breakfast with teens: Keeping the Faith and Saving the Planet: Youth at the Core In conversation with teens, Yossi will offer examples of youth engagement with climate change, and detail how youth can become both environmental activists and innovators.
