MARCH 16 BRUNCH MEETING

LA County Supervisor Sheila Kuehl

To Discuss Women In Politics

Sheila Kuehl was first elected to represent Los Angeles County's Third District in November 2014, and was reelected to her second term on November 6, 2018.

As a member of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors and immediate past Chair, she has led the way and worked on a great many initiatives and motions to improve people's lives and reform systems in the County.

Some of these efforts include:

- Increasing the minimum wage
- Providing funding for our homeless
- Supporting the creation of the Office of Child Protection
- Bringing a focus on better serving and supporting our LGBTQ youth.

Do you know a high school senior who plans to go to college?

Will they need money to help get there?

*A wonderful source is the Fran Pavley Scholarship
For Empowering Young Women*

The Democratic Women’s Council of the Conejo Valley is here to help. Once again, we are running a contest for public high school women in the Conejo Valley, and five young women can win a $1,000 scholarship. Who couldn’t use this to go towards their higher education? However, they can’t win if they don’t enter. Make sure they fill out an application today because the deadline is approaching very soon: Midnight APRIL 30, 2019. Enter this link <https://dwccv.org/fran-pavley-scholarship/>
