

TBS Social Action Lecture

The State of Antisemitism: What Can We Do as a Community to Fight Hate for Good?

Meredith R. Weisel, ADL

Wednesday, April 1, 7:00 – 8:30 pm
Temple Beth Shalom Social Hall
1461 Baltimore-Annapolis Blvd., Arnold MD

Please RSVP by 3/27/20 to cadreyfuss@gmail.com

Meredith Weisel of the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) Washington DC office will address concerns about resurgent anti-Semitism locally and nationwide as well as policy responses to hate-based incidents more generally.

- What is Anti-Semitism?
- Israel and Anti-Semitism
- The Growing Problem of Modern Anti-Semitism – attitudes and hate-crime statistics
- ADL in the 21st Century
- Resources

The session will conclude with an opportunity for Q&A. Coffee and dessert will be provided.

Meredith R. Weisel currently serves as the Senior Associate Regional Director at the ADL – Washington, DC Regional Office. She is responsible for legislative advocacy and coalitions, law enforcement training, community engagement, and incident response.

Meredith is an experienced attorney and government relations professional who has spent decades in public policy and community issues in the Washington area. She also serves on the Montgomery County Commission for Women and on committees at both the Charles E. Smith Jewish Day School and her synagogue Shaare Torah. Previously Meredith served as the Director of Maryland Government and Community Relations for the Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC) of Greater Washington. She holds a B.A. from American University and a J.D. from the Widener University School of Law.