
BIOGRAPHY

WOO LIM KWAK

Woo Lim finished his bachelor's degree in Theology at Methodist Theological University in South Korea and now is a graduate student at Drew Theological Seminary in the third year of the M.Div program.

Woo Lim spent a year in the rural tribal community in Kenya as a youth missionary, cooperating with an NGOs called Korean Food for Hungry International in 2016. In addition to the year of the mission, Woo Lim used to serve Hannam-dong Methodist Church in South Korea as a youth preacher for two and a half years.

During his second year at Drew, he has done his internship at Covenant United Methodist Church in Plainfield. He has led Children's Program every Saturday morning on Zoom. Moreover, he has served the church as a music director, technician for online worship services, and preacher.

Woo Lim strongly believes that only God's unfailing love can change the world and that he is called for it.
