CALL TO CONFESSION

When the Lord comes, He will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness, and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Therefore, in the light of Christ let us confess our sins.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (IN UNISON)

We think we know so much, O God, and with our meager knowledge we presume to judge others. We arrogantly announce our own righteousness without a compassionate thought. We shut others out because of our faulty judgment and our blindness. Help us, merciful God, to again listen to you. Help us to truly open our hearts to you. Remind us again of your great love and presence in our lives. Forgive us our foolishness and our stubbornness. Create in us new spirits, filled with your love, offering peace and hope to all. In Jesus' Name we pray. Amen.

PERSONAL CONFESSION AND MEDITATION (IN SILENCE)

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

Leader: As we confess, may we gladly receive the grace of God into our lives. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

People: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

All: Glory to God. Amen.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (IN UNISON)

O Lord, your Word is a lamp to our feet and a light to our path. Give us grace to receive your truth in faith and love, and strength to follow on the path you set before us; through Jesus Christ. Amen.

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Genesis 1:1-5; Psalm 29

Genesis 1:1-5

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

Psalm 29

Ascribe to the LORD, O heavenly beings, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength. Ascribe to the LORD the glory of his name; worship the LORD in holy splendor. The voice of the LORD is over the waters; the God of glory thunders, the LORD, over mighty waters. The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is full of majesty. The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars; the LORD breaks the cedars of Lebanon. He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, and Sirion like a young wild ox. The voice of the LORD flashes forth flames of fire. The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness; the LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh. The voice of the LORD causes the oaks to whirl, and strips the forest bare; and in his temple all say, "Glory!" The LORD sits enthroned over the flood; the LORD sits enthroned as king forever. May the LORD give strength to his people! May the LORD bless his people with peace!

WORSHIP NOTES

Prelude

Charles Callahan is a well-known American musician and organist who has been a prolific composer of sacred music for church and concert use. He is a graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and the Catholic University of America in Washington, DC. Additional study has been in England, France, Germany, and Belgium. "Alleluia" is an original composition that was composed in 2011 and published in 2013 in a collection of organ pieces that make for useful and exciting postludes (Alleluia: A Postlude Collection). It contains three sections (ABA form) each of which maintains a syncopated rhythm (3+3+2) that is reminiscent of a Latin habanera.

Opening Hymn

This hymn's text was written by Charles Wesley (1707-1788) and first appeared in Hymns and Sacred Poems, 1740, under the title "Morning Hymn." The imagery of light and darkness evokes the beginning of the life of faith with each new day and the inauguration of Jesus' ministry in history. Therefore, the hymn is a fitting hymn of praise, especially during the Epiphany Season. It is also appropriate as the opening hymn of Morning Praise and Prayer. The tune first appeared in Johann Gottlob Werner's Choralbuch, 1815. It was subsequently harmonized by William Havergal for inclusion in Hymns Ancient and Modern, 1861. Ratisbon is the old name for Regensburg, a lovely Bavarian city on the Danube.
