LUKE 19:1-10 CONTINUED FROM FRONT PAGE

Again, Jesus declared that it was his purpose to "seek and save the lost." One scholar wrote, "In the New Testament 'lost' does not mean damned or doomed. It just means in the wrong place....A [person] is lost when [they have] wandered away from God; and is found when once again taking a rightful place as an obedient child in the...family of the Father." How has God "found" you and moved you into the family of Jesus the Christ?

"Now is the time!", Jesus proclaimed as he embarked on his mission. The kingdom of God is here! Change your minds and actions, and believe this encouraging message! (my paraphrase Mark 1:15) We United Methodist believe that when Jesus spoke of the Kingdom of God, he was referring to the world as it was created to be. How will we make the world more like it ought to be when we allow God's power to operate through us to accomplish our personal goals? What will you do?

Lord Jesus, thank you for coming to "seek and save the lost," which includes me. Please make it possible for me to join you in your world-changing purpose. Amen.

I look forward to seeing you very soon in worship! In our divided world, let us be a people who "seek and save the lost" as we show the world how to be one for the cause and purpose of our Lord Jesus Christ.

LUKE 19:1-10

1 Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through town. 2 A man there named Zacchaeus, a ruler among tax collectors, was rich. 3 He was trying to see who Jesus was, but being a short man, he couldn't because of the crowd. 4 So he ran ahead and climbed up a sycamore tree so he could see Jesus, who was about to pass that way. 5 When Jesus came to that spot, he looked up and said, 'Zacchaeus, come down at once. I must stay in your home today.' 6 So Zacchaeus came down at once, happy to welcome Jesus. 7 Everyone who saw this grumbled, saying, 'He has gone to be the guest of a sinner.' 8 Zacchaeus stopped and said to the Lord, 'Look, Lord, I give half of my possessions to the poor. And if I have cheated anyone, I repay them four times as much.' 9 Jesus said to him, 'Today, salvation has come to this household because he too is a son of Abraham. 10 The Human One [or Son of Man] came to seek and save the lost.'

A few weeks ago in worship, we looked at a guy named Zacchaeus. Even though he was well-known and wealthy, Zacchaeus was so eager to see Jesus that he climbed a tree to make up for his low stature. But because of his mission, Jesus was more eager to see Zacchaeus than the latter was to see him. Jesus disregarded the complaints of the crowd by announcing his very public invitation to a lunch at the home of one of the town's most reviled "sinners."

Jesus said that he had "come to seek and save the lost" to the complaining multitude. That was Jesus' overarching purpose, which drove him to repair and put right all the damage that evil causes in our broken world, rather than restricting him to a single people.
