A TIME OF EXPECTANCY.....CONTINUED FROM FRONT PAGE

As I look forward, I already give thanks to God for the infusion of new energy and enthusiasm that will come with a new pastor who will work alongside you. I pray that you join me with that same spirit of expectancy and anticipation!

Just as you all did such a wonderful job of welcoming Sarah and me five years ago, I have every confidence that you will offer the same loving hospitality to Rev. Ray Warren and his wife. For those of you who have never been a part of welcoming a new pastor into your midst, I read an interesting article recently that offered a few simple ideas that you can do to demonstrate your hospitality. Here they are:

- Open your heart and decide that you are going to love your new pastor.
- Begin praying daily for your new pastor and family, even as you continue to pray for your departing pastor and family.
- Send cards of welcome and encouragement to our incoming pastor (use church mailing address: PO Box 2597, Burlington NC 27216).
- Introduce yourself to the pastor... repeatedly! You have one name to learn; your pastor has many names to learn.

I give God thanks for the time that we have had together in ministry, and will continue to lift the Front Street congregation in prayer as you journey boldly into the future!

Grace and peace,
Pastor Ross

A TIME OF EXPECTANCY & ANTICIPATION

To everything there is a season.... – Ecclesiastes 3:1

As you have probably heard, I will be retiring as of Annual Conference this June. First, I want to thank everyone who has responded with such kind words. After 5 years of living in community with you, we have grown to love everyone. We will also miss you as we move into this next season of life. Change is sometimes difficult and can cause anxiety – mainly because we are not sure what the future holds. Such feelings are understandable. I'm sure that not even God is surprised by those feelings – after all, He created us. However, as Christians, in the midst of our anxiety we have the comfort of knowing that the One who holds the entire universe in the palm of His hand also is in charge of the future of His church.

The Holy Spirit has been guiding Front Street in anticipation of this time. Leaders have continued to grow in maturity and ability. Everyone in the church understands that you are also ministers by virtue of your baptism. Think about what that means! Our average worship attendance, including those who participate remotely, is about 315. So, while one paid minister in the church is changing, there are still approximately 314 ministers still forging ahead to do the work of the Kingdom through Front Street church! That's exciting!

The long-term trend of ministry at FSUMC is a great example of the fact that ministry in a local church should not rise and fall with the coming and going of pastors. Ministry should be owned by the people in the congregation. If the ministry of Front Street ceases to move forward in a meaningful way just because I have gone, then I have failed to adequately do my job, which is to help equip the saints for ministry. However, I feel that you are well-equipped to continue to do great things for the Kingdom...in Burlington and beyond.

NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Annual Conference 2022 will focus on Graceful Justice – Rooted in Our Baptism. Our pastors and lay delegates will be participating in the Annual Conference. Let's surround our pastors, delegates, and bishop with prayer as they discern God's will and order for the ministries of the NC Annual Conference.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

We send our thanks to the women of Front Street for a wonderful year of fellowship and service. Please follow the FSUMC website for summer opportunities to grow in faith and in service to others.

Several social action events were very successful this spring. Collections were gathered in April and donated to the Diaper Bank of North Carolina in Durham. Many thanks goes out to the 16 UMW members who served in the Baking for a Purpose Ukraine event under the leadership of Amanda Warren. The event earned over $3000.00 to send to a sister UMC in Ukraine to assist in housing 33+ refugee families. Also, gently used jewelry was collected at our annual spring luncheon in May and was donated to Residential Treatment Services for their upcoming sale in September. On June 8 UMW assisted with our C4C school promotion ceremony in the Sanctuary.

August 27 is the date for a UMW sponsored spiritual growth opportunity to be held from 9 a.m.-3:30 p.m. Be on the lookout for more details. You won't want to miss the opportunity to hear a powerful speaker on growing our faith! Mark your calendars!

Hope you have a wonderful summer. Contact Suzie Lambeth 704 -907-1472 or Kathy Roberson 336-380-5664 should you have questions on any of these events for UMW.
