Since 1899, NAWL has been empowering women in the legal profession, cultivating a diverse membership dedicated to equality, mutual support, and collective success. NAWL's mission is to provide leadership, a collective voice, and essential resources to advance women in the legal profession and advocate for the equality of women under the law.

Designed for senior in-house counsel, NAWL's Fourteenth General Institute ("GCI 14") is a two-day program focused on providing attorneys with the network and programming necessary to create a legacy within their own successful careers by handing down the gift of knowledge, experience & opportunity to others. A career ladder is best climbed with one hand reaching toward the next rung and the other hand extended behind, bringing others along with us.

For additional information about NAWL and the Fourteenth General Counsel Institute, please visit NAWL's website at http://www.nawl.org/GCI14. Note that attendance at GCI 14 is limited to in-house counsel and select representatives from law firm sponsors.
