

MEET PART ONE OF KATY ALSOBROOK'S MENAGERIE: EGGETHA & BILL

Pet's name: Eggetha (chicken) and Bill (duck)

Favorite snacks: Corn and worms.

Favorite things to do: Walk around the block, swim in the kiddie pool, eat.

How Eggetha came to be part of your family: Eggetha the chicken came into our lives last spring as the pandemic was underway and the popularity of backyard chickens rose (she initially was accompanied by Omletta and General Benedict but they are no longer with us).

Tell us a funny story: Bill and Eggetha are a popular subject of posts on NextDoor. Apparently, it is surprising to people to see a chicken and duck duo strolling through the neighborhood. Luckily we have lots of great neighbors who jump in to insist to defend Bill and Eggetha's walks and insist they will make it home safely.

Favorite personality qualities: Eggetha is very social and likes to be where the action is. She likes to cluck "Hello" and will let you know when she is ready to be fed. If you are not fast enough, she will peck at your feet. Bill is more reserved with her (yes, her) interactions. She spends quite a bit of time on the roof of the garage scoping things out. Recently, we discovered, after not seeing her for a few days, that Bill built a nest under the deck where she has been hoarding eggs. My favorite thing about Eggetha and Bill is their sweet friendship and how they follow one another around.
