Directed by Eleanor Coppola MAKING MARIE ANTIONETTE

106 mins | Rated PG-13 | Documentary

Exclusive screening courtesy of Sofia Coppola and MUBI. In 2005, Eleanor Coppola filmed her daughter Sofia directing Marie Antoinette at the Palace of Versailles, the first production ever granted access to the palace. For two decades, eighty hours of footage went unseen. Now, twenty years after the film's release and in fulfillment of her mother's wish, that footage becomes a film of its own. The documentary follows the making of this landmark production, Milena Canonero's costume work, and what it took to direct at 34, watched the whole time by her own mother.

LIMITED RUN

FASHION TO FILM on December 2, 2026 is sold out! You can still join the fun and support the Cameo Cinema by purchasing tickets to these two wonderful events that were created as part of this exciting fund-raising event.

Exclusive screening of "Evil Genius" with Director Courteney Cox Sunday, December 6, 2027

Showtime: 1:00 pm Tickets: $250

Spend an evening with Courteney Cox at a private screening of her new film, "Evil Genius", fresh off its world premiere at the Toronto International Film Festival. Join us for an intimate conversation and Q&A with Cox about her return to feature directing, and the eight year journey from script to screen.

"Evil Genius" is based on the infamous "pizza bomber" case - exploring deception, desperation, and the blurred line between victim and villain.
Complimentary glass of wine.

Bar-B-Que and BLUES Saturday, January 16, 2027

6:00 pm to 9:00 pm | Tickets $150

Native Sons of the Golden West Hall
1313 Spring Street, St. Helena CA 94574

Pull on your favorite jeans, dust off your boots, and head to the Native Sons Hall for a night when Alvon Johnson brings the blues to St. Helena. Hailed worldwide as the "Ambassador of the Blues", this former vocalist with the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame group The Coasters and onetime Blues Guitar Player of the Year glides from smoky blues to swinging jazz with a showmanship that turns any room into a party. Kick off the evening with a feast of mouthwatering barbecue and sides, paired with your favorite beverages, before the music and the dancing take over!
