

Arkansas
State
University
Childhood Services

Continuum for Teaching and Learning

Powerful Interactions:
An Introduction

When: February 6, 2024, from 6 - 9 p.m.

Where: Child Care Aware of Northcentral Arkansas
Olympia Plaza, 2215 E Oak St,
Conway, AR 72032

Who:

Teaching staff working with infants, toddlers, and preschoolers. This intermediate-level course is ideal for more experienced educators who want to deepen relationships with children through intentional interactions.

More to Know:

Based on the book Powerful Interactions: How to Connect with Children and Extend Their Learning, this workshop offers an overview of the 3-step process that helps adults individualize teacher-child interactions and extend children's learning during teacher-initiated, child-initiated, and play-based activities, as well as routines and transitions.

Register on the Arkansas Professional Development Registry (PDR)

<https://pdr.ade.arkansas.gov/>

PDR Course #63322

PDR Course# 63322

For more information, please
email Rebecca Dunahoo,
RDunahoo@AState.edu