

Powerful Interactions: An Introduction

Who: Teaching staff working with infants, toddlers, and preschoolers.

This intermediate-level course is ideal for more experienced educators who want to deepen relationships with children through intentional interactions.

Based on the book Powerful Interactions: How to Connect with Children and Extend Their Learning, this training offers an overview of the 3-step process that helps adults individualize teacher-child interactions.

When, Where, and How:

To complete this hybrid course, you will:

Monday, January 29 - Friday, February 02, 2024

- Watch four recorded (video) sessions
- Submit a journal response to each video.
- Document your thoughts on a course handout.

Monday, February 05, 2024

Attend a one-hour, live Zoom meeting on February 5th from 12:30 - 1:30 pm or 6:30 - 7:30 pm. Please bring your completed handout and be ready share your ideas with other course participants.

More to Know

To receive the 3 hours of PDR credit, participants must complete the virtual portion and attend the live Zoom session. Partial credit cannot be given.

Arkansas State University
Childhood Services

Continuum for Teaching and Learning

Powerful Interactions: An Introduction Direct

**CLICK HERE TO REGISTER**

<https://conta.cc/41JnNc1>

For additional information, please email
Rebecca Dunahoo at
RDunahoo@AStrate.edu

