

▼ 1 TOGETHER AT LAST. On a beach trip to Corona Del Mar, SENIOR CLARA GURIGUIS chats with senior Marissa Sharouda on Jan. 25. After beaches reopened, Guriguis spent time with her church friends. "When I saw Marissa, we couldn't even look at each other without laughing because it had been so long since we'd talked in person. We all quickly adjusted and had a great night roasting marshmallows, playing Paranoia and playing football," Guriguis said.

▼ 3 READY TO GO. Packing snacks in a bag, JUNIOR EUNICE YI makes preparations for a picnic on Feb. 14. Celebrating Valentine's Day, Yi enjoyed hanging out with her friends for the occasion. "The most memorable thing that happened was playing for the Girls. There were so many secrets spilled and embarrassing dares," Yi said.

4 LAUREN JUNG

▼ 5 PAINT A PICTURE. Painting on her canvas on March 24, SENIOR KATHERINE KIM hangs out with seniors Gae Eun Park, Allison Lee and June Kim at Emory Park. For the first time in a while, Kim and her friends decided to meet up and create art while staying distanced from others. "We text every day, so [I] wasn't awkward or anything. Instead, there was relief and happiness from finally getting out and being able to meet like we planned," Kim said.

7 EUNICE CHUNG

▼ 7 PARTY ON! Stopping for a photo on Sept. 13, JUNIOR EUNICE CHUNG celebrates junior Lauren Ahn's birthday with friends. Chung made sure to abide by COVID-19 guidelines. "We had to keep our masks on for the whole time except when we were eating. Since we were all safe and clean, we didn't worry too much," Chung said.

▼ 8 FROM HEAD TO TOE. Lifting her foot, SOPHOMORE ZION PARK jokes around with sophomore Irene Yun on Sept. 3. To celebrate sophomore Sara Han's birthday, Park and Yun visited Han's neighborhood at midnight. "We bought her a cake and a gift box [with] snacks and a doll. I took a photo of her too because she wanted to post for [Instagram]," Park said.

9 LYNDSY MITCH

▼ 9 WORK IT THROUGH. Hanging with seniors Alice Pham, Harinder Dhariwal and Lyndsey Mitch, SENIOR ANDREW NGO completes his assignments on Aug. 29. With the presence of his peers, Ngo appreciated the company while doing homework. "Just knowing that there's someone else who's working on something too is a little reassuring. It's so easy to feel alone when you don't see anyone," Ngo said.

stand BY ME

You might rarely see others in person, but that doesn't mean you can't show your appreciation. Whether it's through gifts, gettogethers or simple calls, students take it upon themselves to celebrate the people in their lives.
