Summer Educational Information and Resources for Families

Summer is here and it offers plenty of time and opportunities for students to keep learning in fun and engaging ways. Also there are important happenings occurring to plan for the upcoming school year. See below for some resources and important information on educational happenings to help you get ready for school.

SUMMER LEARNING

CCSD has launched its Summer Connections webpage. Summer Connections was created to be the one-stop-shop website for parents and students to locate information on for summer learning. The Summer Connections webpage has Daily Summer Guides, Learning Extension Opportunities (downloadable Packets), a digital home academy, virtual learning opportunities, information about summer school and more. Please visit summerconnections.ccsd.net or for the Spanish version, please visit conexionesdeverano.ccsd.net.

SUMMER FOOD SERVICE PROGRAMS

Each year, the U.S. Department of Agriculture partners with local organizations like Clark County School District to provide free meals to students who received free and reduced meals over the school year over the summer. Any student under age 18 may come and pick up food at distribution sites. Meals are currently offered through July 31, 2020. To find a site near you or for times and locations of mobile food distribution sites, visit ccsd.nutrislice.com.

Parents/Guardians who pick up meals at CCSD's Food Distribution sites will be provided with two breakfasts and two lunches per child on Thursday, July 2 because CCSD will be closed on Friday, July 3 in observance of the Fourth of July holiday.

PROVIDING FEEDBACK FOR CLARK COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT'S REOPENING PLAN

CCSD has provided the community with its proposed Reopening Plan. It is located at https://drive.google.com/file/d/1BkoP19kx2aGZDVhpNLSPJJgwS4_yam8r/view. The Plan will be proposed to CCSD's Board of Directors on June 25th and voted on July 9th.

Parents who would like to share feedback on the Plan and how it affects their children/family can email the Board of Trustees at boardmtgcomments@nv.ccsd.net or email the all the Trustees or the Trustee over their neighborhood at https://www.ccsd.net/trustees/contact/all.

CHILDRENS IN FOSTER CARE'S RIGHTS TO SCHOOL STABILTY

When foster children move homes or enter foster care, they have a right to either stay at the current/ last school they attended at their previous address or attend a new school based on their new address. National data found that a child gets behind educationally 4-6 months with each school move. DFS is legally required to make this decision within 10 days of a placement move. It is presumed that it is in the best interest of the child to stay at the current school unless a school move is necessary for educational success. In making this decision to stay at a school or move schools, DFS collects information from a variety of sources which may include reaching out caregivers. If DFS decides to keep the child at the current school and the caregiver does not live in the zoned area for the school, DFS and the school district are required to provide reasonable transportation to and from the school and should work with caregivers on the transportation plan. DFS will be in contact with caregivers on what the school and transportation plan is for the child. Until an official decision is made, the child must remain at the last school the child attended and not be unenrolled from school. Contact your DFS caseworker to find out your child's school and transportation plan and if you have any concerns about the plan.
