

Clark County and the Cities of Boulder City, Henderson, Las Vegas, Mesquite and North Las Vegas have been working on a list of resources for working parents to prepare for the first day of school on August 24, 2020.

HELP WITH TECHNOLOGY

The Nevada COVID -19 Task Force, led by Chairman Jim Murren and President Elaine Wynn, is working on rallying the resources of the private sector to help aid the State's response, recovery and relief from COVID-19. This Task Force has set up Connecting Kids Nevada where parents can help this effort by filling out a survey to assess current distance learning needs. The Task Force has also set up a Family Support Center you can call at 1-888-616-2476 from Monday-Saturday, 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. if you do not have internet connectivity or access to a device. The Family Support Center can connect qualified families to the internet for free. See FAQ for more information in English and in Spanish.

COUNTY AND CITY PROGRAMS AVAILABLE FOR WORKING PARENTS

Clark County has expanded programming through School Daze, a program designed for children ages 5 to 12 years of age and will run Monday through Friday from 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Socially distanced activities will include educational time, games, arts n' crafts, sports and themed activities. Registration is now open and can be accessed here.

City of Henderson has expanded programming through the Battle Born Kids and Battle Born Teens for residents, with programming designed for children ages 5-14 and will run Monday through Friday from 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. The programs incorporate daily activities that may include games, crafts, sports, and movies. Registration is now open and information can be accessed here.

City of North Las Vegas has three options as part of their Southern Nevada Urban Micro Academy, including options for live classroom instruction from a teacher, blended with online lessons, with access to enrichment and extracurricular activities. Additionally, the City of North Las Vegas will provide learning space for homeschooling co-ops, and other education groups. Safekey programming and before and after school care is also available. Registration is now open and information is available here.

The City of Las Vegas has launched the Vegas Strong Academy to support distance learning for students in grades K-8. Each site will feature age and grade appropriate academic, cultural, artistic and recreational programming. The CLV has also just started Vegas Strong University, a teen program serving grades 9-12, providing support with distance learning, leadership training, community service, workforce development and college preparation. Both Vegas Strong Academy and Vegas Strong University operate Monday through Friday from 6:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Registration is now open and information is available here. Through a partnership between the CLV and the DISCOVERY Children's Museum, 50 children from ReInvent Schools in grades 1-5 will be served in a full day, completely subsidized program, DISCOVERY Study Hall. DISCOVERY Study Hall will operate from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and will support distance learning and supplement offline time with science, technology, engineering, art and mathematic learning activities. Finally, beginning September 8, the City of Las Vegas will launch a Community Navigator program placing AmeriCorps Service Members in community locations such as housing projects, churches and local businesses to support students and families. The Navigators will be equipped with collateral and resources to assist and support students and families with CCSD questions, home school support, social services questions and general community needs. The Navigators will maintain consistent schedules at each location, which will posted at each location with a telephone number to call if support is needed beyond the scheduled day and time window. The Navigators will assist the families with making the telephone call, going online, or actively getting a response to the question or need.
