

Emeritus Institute Instructor

TREVOR MURPHY

Where were you born and where did you grow up?
Laguna Beach, California

What is your educational background?
BA in Economics from UC Berkeley and Master in Foreign Service from Georgetown University in Washington, DC

Do you teach elsewhere or have you in the past?
I taught economics at WeruWeru girls college in Tanzania while in the Peace Corps (1995-1998). I currently teach estate planning and financial planning in the community at senior centers, community centers, and public libraries through my nonprofit Financial and Estate Literacy.

What is your favorite aspect of your chosen career?
I am a professional fiduciary, and I love helping people.

What quality do you feel best describes you?
People describe me as having "quiet strength."

What other interests, hobbies and pastimes are you passionate about?
Playing music, basketball and surfing

What do you think you'll enjoy most about teaching for the Emeritus Institute?
Helping people figure out their plans

What message would you like to send to your current and future Emeritus Students about what they can expect from your classes?
You will get a lot of useful, unbiased information.

What are some "FUN FACTS" about you?
- I have two adopted daughters from Guatemala.
- My wife is from Cape Town, South Africa.