Probably best-known for his tune "Right Field," (recorded by Peter Paul & Mary, among many, many others), Willy has been a professional singer/songwriter since age fifteen. He has toured nationally, often with his wife Wendy, and played such venues Folk City, The Speakeasy, The Bitter End, Uncle Calvin's, and Berkshire Busk!

Also trained as an actor at Boston U., he has combined his skills in shows such as Woody Guthrie's American Song, Assassins, Cotton Patch Gospel, Pump Boys & Dinettes, Ain't Nothin' But the Blues and Smoke on the Mountain. Off Broadway, Willy appeared in Flipside: the Patti Page Musical, and the two-hander Texas in Paris, opposite Tony award-winning star Lili Uchida.

While husband & father in the long-running domestic comedy The Welch Family, he also spent much of his performing life as "Mr. Willy," a beloved children's entertainer.
