

WINTERTALK

The Doctrine(s) of Discovery, for Pueblo, Navajo and Apache Peoples and the Churches

January 8-9, 2021 (Virtual/Online)

This is an opportunity for respectful listening to the realities and effects of government and church actions based on perceived supremacy and the stories of the effects on Indigenous people, especially in New Mexico—and to consider responses from people of faith which honor our Native neighbors.

SPEAKERS

Rev. David Bell, Minister for Indigenous Justice at the Center for Indigenous Ministries; speaking on the Doctrine(s) of Discovery

Mr. Jon Ghahate, Museum Cultural Educator, Indian Pueblo Cultural Center, speaking on Indigenous people's experience and Pueblo people's experience

Dr. Kayt Whitebird Orange, PhD., Acting Clinical Director of Behavioral Health, Mescalero Apache Nation, speaking on Apache people's experience

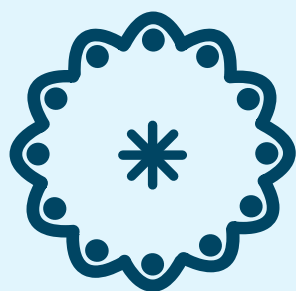

Rev. Cornelia Eaton, Canon to the Ordinary of Ministry, Navajoland Episcopal Diocese, speaking on Navajo people's experience
