About Catherine

Catherine Hois is an art educator with a Master of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Fine Arts, and Bachelor of Education from York University. She has taught art to people of all ages and levels, from elementary school students to adults in Toronto and Windsor Ontario. Catherine enjoys helping others discover and develop their own artistic potential and expression.

Catherine Hois has recently worked as an education assistant and an art teacher at Art Windsor-Essex, under Young Canada Works Internship, in 2023.

Currently, Catherine Works as a part-time art teacher at Art Windsor-Essex in Collaboration with United Way Windsor-Essex County, developing and teaching monthly youth art classes.

Programs

Catherine Hois offers:

- Process-based approach to art making - Process based art focuses on expression, emotion, storytelling, and communication through visual arts.
- All skill levels - I can help you improve your artistic knowledge by working with your current skills and abilities, focusing on processes and techniques that you enjoy.
- Person centered art projects - Do you like painting? Drawing? Collage? Fabrics? Beading? I will create art projects that are specific to your needs, interests, and passions.
- Hand over hand art making - We can work together to create your vision. I am open to physically guiding your hand, while following your lead.
