Let's Talk about Living with Roommates!

Free Virtual Webinar

This webinar was made to help you decide if living with a roommate is right for you.

Topics covered will include:

- Choosing to live independently.
- What does it mean to be a tenant?
- Who is the landlord?
- What responsibilities come with living with others?
- Who will do the household chores?
- What is the Central Housing Registry and how do I apply?
- How do I find the right roommate for me?
- What are the benefits to having one (or more) roommates?
- How can a DSO Housing Navigator help me?

This free virtual presentation is for people with developmental disabilities living in Windsor-Essex, as well as their family members and other members of their support network.
