VIRTUAL COMEDY SHOW

The Virtual Comedy Show is a stand-up comedy event inspired by our previous successful in-person fundraisers. Once again, this show brings together colleagues and peers within the Windsor-Essex area who support the charity receiving the proceeds.

The show features professional comedian headliner, Scott Faulconbridge, Stand-Up Comedian, Actor, and Writer. Scott has been nominated for three Canadian Comedy Awards including, Best Male Stand-Up (2009), and Best Improv Troupe.

Proceeds from the Virtual Comedy Show support Beyond Disability Rehabilitation Network and United Way/Centraide Windsor-Essex County

About Beyond Disability Rehabilitation Network

Beyond Disability Rehabilitation Network is a collaborative community hub dedicated to enhancing the lives of persons living with a chronic disability. They are located at Hôtel-Dieu Grade Healthcare in Room 1326. Members of the network include: Assisted Living Southwestern Ontario, Brain Injury Association of Windsor & Essex County, Community Living Essex County, Community Living Windsor, John McGivney Children's Centre, Multiple Sclerosis Society of Canada Windsor-Essex Chapter, Ontario Stroke Network Spinal Cord Injury Ontario, Windsor Amputee Support Group, Windsor-Essex County ALS Society and our partner, Hôtel-Dieu Grace Healthcare.

About United Way/Centraide Windsor-Essex County

United Way/Centraide Windsor-Essex County has served the community for over 73 years. Their bold new 10-year vision is focused on lifting children and youth out of poverty from the time they are born until they find a career. Windsor-Essex has one of the highest childhood poverty rates in the country. United Way's goal is to work with a broad group of community partners and residents to change the trajectory for youth through education, food security, mental health supports and more.
