Celebrating 100 Years – A Milestone for Our Community

READ TIME: 2 MINUTES

Pamela Nelson, Trinidad State College Foundation Board Chair

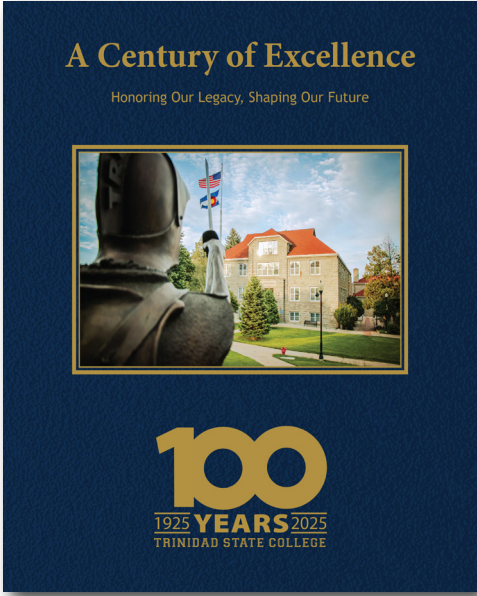

Being part of the Trinidad State College Foundation has given me a front-row seat to just how much Trinidad State means to so many. While I didn’t attend Trinidad State myself, I’ve come to appreciate its incredible impact—on students, families, and the entire community.

Whether you’re an alum reflecting on your time here, a friend of the College who believes in its mission, or part of the wider community that has supported it over the years—this centennial is a celebration of all who have been part of Trinidad State’s journey. This isn’t just a milestone; it’s a chance to honor the people and stories that have shaped Trinidad State into what it is today.

Exciting things are ahead as we celebrate this remarkable legacy!

I recently had the chance to take a sneak peek at the commemorative book, and it is truly something special. The history, memories, and the people who made Trinidad State what it is today are all captured beautifully. If you haven’t already, don’t forget to order your copy. It is something everyone will treasure for years to come.

And, of course, our festivities are just getting started. Founder’s Day will set the stage for a year of celebration, followed by the Jubilee Luncheon at the Valley Campus, and then the big Centennial Extravaganza Weekend in August—an incredible tribute to A Century of Excellence, Honoring Our Legacy, Shaping Our Future.

I hope you’ll join us to reminisce, reconnect, and be part of this once-in-a-lifetime milestone.

Here’s to 100 years—celebrating together!
