A Poem about the Prodigal Son

John Newton is remembered as a Christian preacher and teacher who had a profound conversion experience within his life. This experience prompted him and inspired him to write the hymn "Amazing Grace." As I was reflecting upon the Gospel for the Fourth Sunday of Lent (Luke 15:1-3, 11-32)

I was pleasantly surprised to come across a lesser-known poem written by John Newton about "The Prodigal Son." For your prayerful edification here is that poem:

Afflictions, though they seem severe; in mercy oft are sent; They stopped the prodigal's career, and forced him to repent.

Although he no relentings felt till he had spent his store; His stubborn heart began to melt when famine pinched him sore.

What have I gained by sin, he said, but hunger, shame, and fear; My father's house abounds with bread, while I am starving here.

I'll go, and tell him all I've done, and fall before his face Unworthy to be called his son, I'll seek a servant's place.

His father saw him coming back, he saw, and ran, and smiled; And threw his arms around the neck of his rebellious child.

Father, I've sinned - but O forgive! I've heard enough, he said, Rejoice my house, my son's alive, for whom I mourned as dead.

Now let the fatted calf be slain, and spread the news around; My son was dead, but lives again, was lost, but now is found.

'Tis thus the Lord his love reveals, to call poor sinners home; More than a father's love he feels, and welcomes all that come.

Eucharistic Adoration

"Glorify the Lord with me, let us together extol his name" (Ps 34)

Weekday Eucharistic Adoration In the Chapel

Adoration is a very private prayer time, but together adorers pray as part of a group. This collective group prays in our chapel five days a week, approximately 15 hours a day and two additional hours in the church on Saturday afternoon. How wonderful it is that so many adorers are together giving glory to God especially during Lent! Everyone is invited to join this amazing group of adorers in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament in Eucharistic adoration.

Our chapel is open Monday through Friday beginning at 7:00 am and we are always looking for more scheduled adorers. Currently we are looking for volunteers to cover Tuesdays at 10:00 am, Wednesdays at 1:00 pm, Thursdays at 10:00 am, 11:00 am, and 2:00 pm and Fridays at 6:00 pm. If you would like to schedule an adoration hour, or are unable to attend your scheduled hour please call Sandy at 763-789-3246.

Saturday Eucharistic Adoration During Lent In Church

Everyone is invited each Saturday afternoon during Lent to attend Eucharistic adoration in church beginning at 3:00 pm and ending at approximately 4:45 pm. This is an opportunity for more people to participate in adoration and for anyone in search of more prayer time before the Blessed Sacrament. Reconciliation at 3:00 pm and Mass at 5:00 pm will be held as usual.

Why Do We Do That?-Catholic Life Explained

Vicar General and Chancellor

Question: I have seen the title of Vicar General and Chancellor used in our Catholic newspaper. Who are they and what do they do?

Answer: A bishop is in charge of a diocese and appoints people to help with its administration. Two of those positions are the Vicar General and the Chancellor. Both play a role in the life of a diocese, despite the many jokes priests may tell at their expense! A chancellor is the archivist of a diocese, charged with task of keeping the records of the diocese. Often a bishop may add other responsibilities and the chancellor may end up being like the executive director of the diocesan office. The chancellor does not need to be a priest.

The vicar general is a priest, appointed by the bishop and acts in the name of the bishop in administering the diocese. He has an advanced degree in canon law or theology. He also has executive authority within the diocese. This means that he is involved in the day-to-day pastoral and temporal administration of the diocese. Canon law does not allow a bishop to appoint a relative to the position, nor the priest in charge of the sacrament of penance. In both cases, the purpose of the law is to avoid conflicts of interest.

Live the Liturgy-Inspiration for the Week

Have you ever given thought to the fact that you are an "ambassador for Christ?" An ambassador is an accredited diplomat and official representative. We are asked to be ambassadors for Christ and his message of reconciliation. Within each one of us is a prodigal son who realizes the need to return home, an elder brother who struggles with entitlement and selfpity, and a forgiving father who simply wants to celebrate love. Realizing that all of these things are operative in our hearts, we can bring credibility to God's ministry of reconciliation. Genuine witnesses are those who not only recognize their need for wholeness, mercy, and forgiveness but also their tendency to be over self-focused and stubborn. Then, discovering freedom from all that binds them, they can then extend the love they have received to others. These ambassadors embody unity, mercy, and reconciliation and can look on others with deep compassion because they know what it is to walk in their shoes. Can God count on you to deliver this message?

Word of Life

"There is an everyday heroism, made up of gestures of sharing, big or small, which build up an authentic culture of life... Part of this daily heroism is also the silent but effective and eloquent witness of all those 'brave mothers who devote themselves to their own family without reserve, who suffer in giving birth to their children and who are ready to make any effort, to face any sacrifice, in order to pass on to them the best of themselves'... We thank you, heroic mothers, for your invincible love! We thank you for your intrepid trust in God and in his love. We thank you for the sacrifice of your life" (The Gospel of Life 84).

Gospel Meditation

Fourth Sunday of Lent

God's love story reveals itself in our stories, experiences, and aspirations. We are all prodigal sons and daughters. There are many times in our lives when we would "sell our souls" in order to pursue our passions. We pursued what we wanted without regard for others or God. We have sowed our oats, thrown ourselves into careless pleasures, spent what we know we ought to have saved, turned our backs on those we love and abused gifts we have been given. We even hit bottom and realized the silliness and self-destruction of it all. We needed to come home. We knew we erred and needed a gentle presence to show us God's unconditional love. This wayward journey home changed us.

As much as we need to be welcomed, we are also the one who needs to do the welcoming and mercy giving. Those we love need our guidance, but they don't always take it. We know that what they are doing is off the mark, self-destructive and wrong. We have to let them go and let it happen, even though they might get hurt. As we wait and hope, they choose to make their way back to us. They don't need us to judge them. They have done enough of that to themselves. We immediately embrace them and are just happy they're home. God uses us to help heal them. Knowing how much we craved understanding and forgiveness ourselves, we can now freely give it away. God uses what he has taught us to teach others.

We are also the entitled ones. At least we "think" we are entitled. After all, we work hard for what we have. We cannot get our heads around the idea that someone can get something that I really deserve! If I do what I'm supposed to do, I ought to be rewarded for that, right? If I do something wrong, I ought to pay the consequences. This is justice, isn't it? This is not God's justice. God is all about love, mercy, compassion, and forgiveness. God's justice is love freely given without merit. We carry the stories of the prodigal son, the unconditional forgiving father, and the entitled angry brother with us. When we make friends with all three, humbly telling those stories to others makes us Christ's ambassadors.
