

April.3-10.1865

<https://www.exploresouthernhistory.com/sutherlin.html>

Danville hosted the Confederate government. President Jefferson Davis stayed at the mansion of William T. Sutherlin, and it became known as the last "Capitol of the Confederacy". Here he wrote and issued his last Presidential Proclamation. The final Confederate Cabinet meeting was held at the Benedict House (since destroyed) in Danville.