

GIVINGTUESDAY

In this time of uncertainty, there's a fundamental truth that gives us hope — together we can do extraordinary things.

GivingTuesday is a global generosity movement unleashing the power of people and organizations to transform their communities and the world. Everyone can have an impact on GivingTuesday. Join the global community by pledging your time, skills, talent or dollars to support the Danville Museum of Fine Arts and History. How will you support the arts and histories in our community?

Give Your Dollars

- Since 1974, the DMFAH has been bringing accessible arts and history opportunities to the communities of the Dan River Region. From beloved performances by DMFAH community partner like Smokestack Theater Company to Museum Coalition exhibitions from the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, to arts and history education programs in local schools as well as the internship program that offers training in best museum practices for high school seniors & undergrads. The Museum also offers fellowships for University research fellows from UNC-G, UVA and Emory University. The DMFAH has made an impact on multiple generations. Help keep the arts and cultural offerings alive and healthy in our community by making a donation today.

Become a Member

- You can participate in a sustaining annual DMFAH membership by joining as an individual, as a family or as a corporation. Individual memberships allows us to see that everybody can participate, family memberships offer opportunities for the whole family to enjoy programming throughout the year. And corporate memberships help contribute to our yearly operating budget.

Give your Time

- Volunteers play a vital role in making a visit to the Danville Museum of Fine Arts fun and informative for guests. By becoming a volunteer, you can use your passion and knowledge for art and history to create a memorable experience for visitors and make a difference in our community. Volunteers also play a crucial role in helping the museum spread the word about DMFAH Art & History exhibits, events and educational activities.

Offer and Share Your Skills

- Looking for ways to better your community? Want to donate your skills or services as a painter, carpenter, small business, copy editor, graphic designer, educator, real-estate developer etc.? Volunteer your time and prowess to help improve the Danville Museum of Fine Arts and History main building, Annex buildings, the grounds and our community outreach exhibition spaces.

Share your Talents

- Are you passionate about the arts? Are you passionate about history? Do you want to use your voice, your art practice, your digital platforms and video as well as writing to advocate for the Danville Museum of Fine Arts and History and the Dan River Region? Become a DMFAH Resident or sign up to work with a professional resident to interact with the community in a profound way. You can contribute to building the most effective programs in the region.

The DMFAH is a 501(c) 3 organization | The CARES Act allows non itemizers to deduct up to $300 in cash giving for the 2020 tax year. For those who itemize, the bill lifts the cap on annual giving from 60% of adjusted gross income to 100% for the 2020 tax year.
