

PRESS RELEASE: Open House at Danville Museum of Fine Arts & History and Partners

Danville Museum of Fine Arts & History, Swanson Studio, 126 Sutherlin Avenue Residency

Date: November 6, 2020

Time: 4:30 – 7:30pm

Danville Museum, along with Swanson Studio and 126 Sutherlin Avenue – Home to Dan River Nonprofit Network, Smokestack Theatre Company and Lucia Video – are opening their doors to the community to show all that they can offer the people of Danville and surrounding areas.

The Danville Museum will be offering free tours of the Museum, highlighting the Camilla Williams exhibit, along with the Civil Rights exhibition and the Civil War Collection. Get a sneak peek at Smokestack Theatre Company's upcoming production of "It's a Wonderful Life: A Live Radio Play." The cast will be rehearsing in the Museum Auditorium beginning around 6:30pm.

Swanson Studio will be showcasing Jonathan Scollo, demonstrating clay techniques. Information about arts classes offered at the studio will also be available.

126 Sutherlin Avenue: Home to the Dan River Nonprofit Network, Smokestack Theatre Co., and Lucia Video

Meet Evelyn Riley, Executive Director and Kellie Wyatt, Outreach and Membership Coordinator of the Dan River Nonprofit Network. Learn about their mission of offering local nonprofits Networking Opportunities, Skills Training and Vetted Resources to help them to achieve their highest growth potential.

Tour Smokestack Theatre Company's new Dressing Rooms, Box Office, and Costumes. Find out more about this nonprofit theatre and all the things they offer the entire community year-round.

View the KIWANIS GREEN SCREEN STUDIO currently housed within the Lucia Video office. Meet Josh Lucia, owner of Lucia Video, and find out about current and past productions including local television commercials and videos for social media.

Afterward, stop by Crème & Vine for an Open House "Specialty" Drink and see all of the delicious food and beverages they have to offer.

