

SUD 2023 ECHO:

Overdose Prevention and Harm Reduction in Kansas

Noon – 1:00 pm Thursdays

Register Today!

at <https://bit.ly/SUD2023ECHO>

Specialty Team Speakers

May 4, 2023 - MAT Updates in Kansas

Daniel Warren, MD

May 11, 2023 - 2022 CDC Guidelines: What's New Since 2016?

Andrew Sack, MD

May 18, 2023 - Our State's Data and Prevention Resources

Scott Johnston, MPH and Alissa Nava, MPH

May 25, 2023 - Race, Class, Drugs, and Equity

Seth Dewey, *BS

June 01, 2023 - Improving Naloxone Access

Lisa Vayda, RPh, MS, MA and Ngoc Vuong, *PhD

Specialty Team Member

Joan Duwve, MD, MPH

*Candidate

Series Purpose: To improve healthcare provider capacity to implement evidence-based practices related to substance use disorder (SUD) prevention, screening, early intervention, referral to treatment, and harm reduction.

No-cost Continuing Education Credit is available for Physicians, Advance Practice Clinicians and Nurses, Pharmacists and Behavioral Health Professionals.

All Courses are designed to meet KSBHA Category III Requirement.

