

Restart Your Business

with SCORE by your side

The coronavirus pandemic is unlike any crisis a small business has ever faced. But small business owners are nothing if not resilient, and you can get through this, with SCORE by your side.

SCORE is proud to have the nations largest network of volunteer, expert business mentors. SCORE has more than 10,000 diverse volunteers who are committed to helping small business owners succeed. Locally, Pasco Hernando SCORE mentors will guide you through reopening and recovery of your business. SCORE mentoring is FREE of charge.

How do you restart your business as the economy reopens? How do you stabilize your finances, how do you adapt your business - how do you remain strong through this stressful period. That's where SCORE can help.

In addition to Pasco Hernando SCORE's mentors, we offer recorded Webinars, Blogs, Podcast, and Templates. Visit our website pascohernando.score.org to request a mentor.

SCORE is committed to helping your small business survive, recover, restart and thrive.
