Message from Father Danny:

On this Passion Sunday, Jesus teaches us what to do when we are faced with destruction and our persecutors and broken hearts: into the hands of God the Father, we are to place our spirits. In taking refuge in the Lord and allowing Him to love us in our weakness, we allow God to fill us with the light of faith and hope of salvation.

April has not been very spring like. I dare say it's been the worst of our winter so far. But with the full moon falling on Thursday, maybe things will start to turn around. Easter is late this year, so here's hoping we are blessed with beautiful weather for the Easter weekend.

On Wednesday evening twenty five, well prepared children, received for the first time the Sacrament of Reconciliation. I'm not sure what happened with my religious education program, but it was not until grade eleven or twelve that I had my first confession during a parish mission in Inverness. I can only conclude that I was a very good boy!

As we enter Holy Week and Easter we enter a special kind of stillness with deep spiritual significance. Although it looks like a busy time with the extended liturgies it is more spiritual as the liturgies themselves speak for themselves. It's like the world slows down just enough to allow more space for prayer, reflection, and meaningful connection—without all the commercial noise there is less pressure, fewer distractions, that tends to surround other holidays. Even family time feels like there's room for quiet moments instead of just rushing around.

The CWL have been finalizing plans for the Diocesan Convention to be held here on April 26. That same weekend is Divine Mercy Sunday and the canonization of Blessed Carlo Acutis in Rome. I'll also be presiding at the wedding of a St.FX graduate—a joyful occasion to look forward to. Have a prayerful and meaningful week.

*God Bless,
Father Danny*
