Even at the Grave
Being Hopeful, Prepared and Faithful

A collaborative Lenten Learning and Discussion Series

Wednesdays in Lent | 6:00–7:30 pm

Wednesday, February 25, 2026
Being Mortal: Naming Our Priorities and Our Hope
A theological and personal conversation about mortality, meaning, and our priorities in the face of death. View the Frontline Program from February 10, 2015 with facilitated discussion to follow.
Hosted by: St. Andrew's Episcopal Church
17 Church Street, Hanover, MA 02339
Office@standrewshanover.org | (781) 826-2062

Wednesday, March 4, 2026
Being Human: Grief, Loss, and Love
Exploring grief as a faithful response to love. Small group conversations with supportive resources.
Hosted by: St. Luke's Episcopal Church
465 First Parish Road, Scituate, MA 02066
stlukes.scituate@gmail.com | (781) 545-9482

Wednesday, March 11, 2026
Being Cared For: Hospice, Palliative Care, and Sacred Presence
Understanding end-of-life care options and how comfort, dignity, and spiritual support are connected and vitally important. Printed guide offered. Small group conversations will be facilitated.
Hosted by: Trinity Episcopal Church
229 Highland Street, Marshfield Hills, MA 02051
trinity.marshfield@verizon.net | (781) 834-8575

Wednesday, March 18, 2026
Being Prepared: Decisions, Funeral Homes, and Practical Planning
A clear, practical session addressing advance directives, funeral planning, and common questions families face.
Hosted by: St. Luke's Episcopal Church
465 First Parish Road, Scituate, MA 02066
stlukes.scituate@gmail.com | (781) 545-9482

Wednesday, March 25, 2026
Being Faithful: Getting Our Affairs in Order as an Act of Love
A guided session inviting participants to plan their funeral, reflect on end-of-life wishes and planning for our legacy for a life well-lived.
Hosted by: St. Andrew's Episcopal Church
17 Church Street, Hanover, MA 02339
Office@standrewshanover.org | (781) 826-2062