You Can Create a JPII Scholarship as Easily as 1 2 3!

Turning your PA state taxes into JPII scholarships is as easy as 1 2 3. Does line 12 of your PA Income Tax Return show a $3,000+ PA tax liability? If yes, you can participate!

Through the Educational Improvement Tax Credit (EITC) program, donors can receive up to a 90% tax credit against their personal PA state tax liability by making their gift through this program. When making the gift, simply state that you would like to designate your funds for John Paul II Center for Special Learning and you've created a scholarship as easy as 123!

Through JPII's partnership with King of Prussia-based BLOCS, an individual or company who wishes to take advantage of this tax-credit program may become a member of a BLOCS Scholarship LLC ("LLC") with a 2-year commitment to fund the LLC. These credits will be distributed to each member via K-1 and are then applied to your PA tax liability for the tax year in which the donation is made.

Last year, JPII provided over $1.3 million in scholarships and financial aid to JPII families, which covers 96% of their tuition.

METROPOLITAN
DEVELOPMENT • BUILDING • MANAGEMENT

At Metropolitan Companies, we believe in building stronger communities—not just through developing communities, but by supporting organizations that uplift and empower every individual. One of the most inspiring examples of this is the John Paul II Center.

The impact of the Center on our local community is nothing short of extraordinary. As the only Catholic school in Berks County dedicated to serving children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities, JPII provides more than education—it offers hope, purpose, and belonging.

What resonates most with us is the Center's deep commitment to seeing every student and adult as a whole person—nurturing them academically, emotionally, socially, and spiritually. That kind of individualized care and compassion is rare, and it leaves a lasting mark on everyone who walks through their doors.

We've had the privilege of witnessing the confidence, joy, and progress of individuals at JPII, and it's clear how transformative their programs are—not only for the students and adults they serve, but for their families and the entire community. It's organizations like John Paul II Center that remind us why giving back matters.

Metropolitan Companies is proud to support the incredible work of the John Paul II Center. Their mission aligns beautifully with our values—dignity, respect, and helping people reach their full potential.
