REDEEMING CONFLICT: FRUITFUL WAYS TO MINISTER TOGETHER

A Retreat for Faith Formation Leaders,
Parish Administrators, & Youth Ministers

February 9-10, 2017

Archbishop Brunett Retreat Center at the Palisades

Conflict can be a blessing and a fruitful exchange that arises from living and working together in the diverse world God created. In this retreat, Ann Garrido will offer practical habits for responding to conflict, pair each habit with a spiritual companion from history, and offer questions and prayers for growth.

Dr. Ann Garrido has a Doctorate of Ministry in Preaching from Aquinas Institute of Theology in St. Louis, MO. Over the past two decades she has taught a range of courses in pastoral theology, homiletics, and catechetics while also serving in a variety of administrative positions including Director of Field Education, Director of Distance Learning, Director of the Aquinas Ministry Integration Project, Director of the Doctorate of Ministry program, and Director of the Masters in Catechesis of the Good Shepherd.
