Dennis G. Cowan, a partner at Plunkett Cooney law firm and former mayor of Royal Oak, was recently named to the Michigan Lawyers Weekly "Hall of Fame" Class of 2022, according to a press release.

The Hall of Fame Class will be honored at an awards ceremony April 8, at the Detroit Marriott Troy hotel.

Cowan previously served as president and CEO of Plunkett Cooney. He is currently the firm's Business Law Department leader and focuses on real estate project development, especially on obtaining governmental licensing and real estate development approvals at the local, county and state levels.

In addition to nearly 40 years in law practice, Cowan was elected and served four consecutive two-year terms as Royal Oak Mayor, (1993-2001), after serving as a commissioner for the Royal Oak City Commission.

Cowan graduated magna cum laude in 1984 from the Detroit College of Law, now known as the Michigan State University College of Law.

Cowan currently serves as a board member for the Oakland Community Health Network.
