

MESSENGER

"I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me...." John 6:35

August 2021

From the Pastor:

If you cannot preach like Peter, if you cannot pray like Paul,
You can tell the love of Jesus and say, "He died for all."

These familiar words from the African American spiritual "There Is a Balm in Gilead" (With One Voice #737) catch my attention every time I sing them. Who of us considers ourselves in the same league with the Apostles when it comes to preaching, praying, or witnessing for Jesus? After all Peter had all that time in Jesus' very presence, three years long, to learn about him and have an example to copy. And Paul, well, he was highly educated, a disciple of Gamaliel before Jesus even got hold of him.

I've been focusing on the book of Acts lately, preparing a sermon series for the Fall. Acts is conveniently (if not too simply put) divided into a "Peter section" (Acts 1-12) and a "Paul section" (Acts 13-28). In these chapters we witness the preaching and prayer life of both Peter and Paul, and far from scaring us off, it ought to bring us great comfort to find that these great examples of faith had to deal with their own shortcomings and foibles just as we do. The difference for us is that we have them as examples to follow. (Paul writes elsewhere, "follow my example as I follow Christ's example." 1 Corinthians 11:1) But that's where the differences end.

Acts begins with a promise, made to the first disciples, but extended to all who will take up that discipleship which begins in baptism. Jesus promises, "...You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses..." (Acts 1:8)

Without the gift of the Holy Spirit, Peter might as well have gone back to fishing for Mrs. Paul's; Paul may as well have kept sewing tents for Coleman! If either one of them were present with us today, they'd tell us that it wasn't their great talent or skill that made them so effective. It was the Holy Spirit's presence in a disciple who made himself available. And even at that, Paul (read that, Saul) could hardly be labeled "available" as he roamed around incarcerating Christians!

Peter writes,

"As you come to him, the living Stone – rejected by humans but chosen by God and precious to him – you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For in Scripture it says: 'See, I lay a stone in Zion, a chosen and precious cornerstone, and the one who trusts in him will never be put to shame...' (1 Peter 2:4-6). Peter, the Rock, led by the Spirit, writes about his own experience. He himself knows about rejecting the cornerstone; he understands being built up; he has come to trust in Jesus in everything, whether it's preaching (Pentecost, Acts 2), praying (while

SEEDS of HOPE

I was first introduced to Seeds of Hope through a book that was assigned to those of us traveling together to Israel in 2019. The book was an autobiography of Tass Saada, entitled “Once an Arafat Man: The True Story of How a PLO Sniper Found a New Life.” After his conversion to Christianity, Tass founded a ministry in Jericho called Seeds of Hope. We visited its facility there during our trip. We had a presentation by its current CEO, Khader Ghanim, who told us about the beginning, growth and current status of the ministry.

It was amazing to hear how this Christian backed ministry in the heart of an Islamic community was able to overcome prejudice, fear, and resentment through its multiple ministries, providing education in a nurturing environment and humanitarian aid including food distribution, primary medical care, and wheelchair distribution, as well as various programs for those with special needs in their community.

Their stated purpose, “Impacting the Lives if Children and Families Today to Bring Long-term Global Change,” is strongly evident as Christian, Jewish, and Islamic people work side-by-side in order to provide some of the most basic community needs in ways that break down ancient prejudices, and help to bring about change in attitudes and lives. It is a ministry that we have supported in the past, and one that I believe we should continue to support.

Psalm 74:17

It was You who set all the boundaries of the earth; you made both summer and winter.

A Day of Sand and Surf

Get the Most Out of It

Summer is ideal beach time for many. When it is sizzling hot in the city, the beach can be a cooler alternative. Be sure to take plenty of sunscreen.

Get the Most out of a Day Filled with Sand and Surf

by Holly Lebowitz Rossi

When my family drives out of the beach parking lot late on a summer afternoon, blissfully tired out by hours spent by the shore, I often say, with joyful sarcasm, “Well, this was no day at the beach!” The phrase, of course, is meant to contrast something stressful with the pure pleasure of a day spent eating picnic food, riding waves and gazing at the sea.

It might be the delirious feeling of a vitamin D infusion that makes me giggle at using the phrase ironically. But it’s also part of my way of marveling at the unique positivity of time spent on a beach. The phrase is a cliché for good reason—a day at the beach is better than a great number of alternative ways to pass a few hours.

However, a day at the beach isn’t immune from stress. We can get caught up in whether we packed enough sunscreen, whether the picnic will stay cold enough or whether the car is going to be filled with sand for the rest of the summer.

How can we get back to that feeling of luxuriating in a seaside day? Try these four simple tips for a positive day at the beach.

On peak summer days, the sun can blaze uncomfortably. Even if you’re not a swimmer, dip your feet and legs into the water every now and then to bring down your body temperature. Make sure to spend some time in the shade, even if you’re wearing sunscreen, to keep from overheating. And hydrate—we sweat even when we swim!

1. Pack Light, Pack Smart

There’s a fine line between having the right number of supplies for a beach day, and burdening yourself by dragging a back-wrenching load across the sand. Make sure you have a towel for each person, sun shade like an umbrella, a light meal and some beverages, an empty bag for garbage, a book or magazine, and sunscreen.

2. Don’t Bring the Valuables

If you aren’t ok with something getting coated with sand, leave it at home. That applies to electronics as well—if you want to bring your phone or an e-reader to the beach, wrap it in a zip-top plastic bag, or invest in a waterproof case.

3. Manage Your Temperature

On peak summer days, the sun can blaze uncomfortably. Even if you’re not a swimmer, dip your feet and legs into the water every now and then to bring down your body temperature. Make sure to spend some time in the shade, even if you’re wearing sunscreen, to keep from overheating. And hydrate—we sweat even when we swim!

4. Discover Something

Make sure you take the time to notice the beauty around you. In between folding towels and handing out sandwiches, seek out a natural discovery like a special shell, a pleasing slope of dune, or a bird helping itself to a seafood lunch.

Ye Servants of God

In 1744, England was at war with France, and the British were expecting an invasion to dethrone George II and restore the House of Stuart to the throne. People suspected the Methodists of friendship with France and perhaps plotting to overthrow the king. Wesleyan meetings were broken up by mobs, and at times John and Charles Wesley themselves were arrested.

In the middle of the turmoil, the Wesleys published a collection of hymns to encourage their followers. The title was Hymns for Times of Trouble and Persecution. This hymn, "Ye Servants of God," was published under the heading "To Be Sung in a Tumult." The stanzas we have in our hymnals today do not suggest any turmoil. Still, one that was omitted reads, "Men, devils engage, the billows arise and horribly rage, and threaten the skies; their fury shall never our steadfastness shock, The weakest believer is built on a rock."

*I saw a vast crowd, too great to count...
 standing in front of the throne and before the Lamb...
 And they were shouting with a mighty shout,
 "Salvation comes from our God who sits on the throne and from the Lamb!"*

REVELATION 7:9-10

Built on The Rock, the Church shall stand!

Ye Servants of God

Charles Wesley (1707-1788)

Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim,
 And publish abroad His wonderful name;
 The name all-victorious of Jesus extol;
 His kingdom is glorious and rules over all.

God ruleth on high, almighty to save;
 And still, He is nigh, His presence we have;
 The great congregation His triumph shall sing,
 Ascribing salvation to Jesus, our King.

"Salvation to God, who sits on the throne!"
 Let all cry aloud and honor the Son;
 The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim,
 Fall down on their faces and worship the Lamb.

Then let us adore and give Him His right,
 All glory and power, all wisdom and might,
 All honor and blessing, with angels above,
 And thanks never ceasing, and infinite love.

July Leadership Team Meeting was held on July 20, 2021

Here are some highlights of current activities around Gloria Dei

Willow Creek Summit— Each year we send 10 people to Church on the Hill, here in San Jose, to attend a simulcast of the Willow Creek Summit from Chicago, IL. This year we have the option of attending at Church on the Hill or watching virtually from home. It's an amazing, inspirational event! If you are interested in joining us, please contact Libby Nelson or Pastor Pat.

Healthy Churches Thrive— The Leadership Team continues participating monthly in the Healthy Leaders Thrive activities. Our Prayer Pods are actively praying. Remember to share your prayer concerns with the Team, and keep them all in your prayers, too! Our Small Group Studies continue through Zoom.

Solar Project— The Solar System is UP and Running. We expect to see significant decreases in our PG&E bill in the next couple of months.

ELC— Summer School has been running smoothly at the ELC. Our Director, Maria Nugent has been continuing to improve the facilities for the school and is working on replacing the grass play yard in the back area with artificial turf. Fence replacement is also on the agenda and will be starting soon. The play yard pergola and sunscreen have been repaired.

Lord's Pantry— Lots going on; they are serving limited hours: currently Monday, Thursday and Fridays from 9 am until 11:30 am. During this time they hand out bread, bakery items, canned items and products shared from other pantries. This is helpful to those who do not have transportation, or out of loyalty. All clients are given information on Food Bank numbers and other pantries. Being on site 3 days a week is also giving volunteers community service hours when needed and time to clean in all the outside corners. Pantry staff are still unable to receive full capacity delivery from the Food Bank but on occasion do get small truckloads of bread and leftover items from Brown Bag to also giveaway to clients. They are meeting the needs of clients still coming and clients understand the hard time the Pantry faces from the fire as well. Complete reopening of the Pantry continues on hold as approval for repairs for the structure await insurance approval. We will be sending out more information on items of need as the re-opening occurs. Please keep the Pantry and its Clients in your prayers.

Caring Ministry— Donna and her team continue to serve our community through informal visits at church, home visits, and phone calls. Health Ministry Corner articles are sent out by Constant Contact each week.

Worship Activities— We continue to offer worship "Live" Sundays at 9:30 AM and online, either by live-streaming the service at 9:30 am Sunday, or later by Facebook or You Tube from the churches website. We continue to do monthly communion (actual and "drive through") for the time being.

We have returned to offering 'Coffee Hour' each week and depend on the generosity of our members to supply the treats to have along with our coffee. Please sign up to host a Sunday (share with another member, too) on the list next to the coffee center.

Music/Streaming— our Sound Crew and our IMDC volunteers continue to work diligently to bring the best sound/streaming to our service. We will be having a media consultant onsite soon to help improve our performance.

Facility Activities— This month a lot has been happening on the facilities. Our focus has been on the homeless problem and our water usage. Our sprinkler system has been repaired and reset to water the front lawn and shrubbery at the "twice a week" regime required during our drought. The Leadership Team will be prioritizing facilities projects that need to be completed including island landscaping and security fence.

GDLC Finances/Budget— Giving continues at a level pace so far this year. We thank you for your continued generosity. Please contact our Treasurer, Barbara McCalment if you have specific questions. As always, members are encouraged to use the "digital" platforms to make their tithes and offerings. If you need help with any of the plans, feel free to contact Ernie Moore, who can help!

Church Administrator Position— We have a great new Church Administrator, Ligia Oliveira. Her current working hours are Monday thru Thursday from 10:30 to 12:00. We'll be introducing her at an upcoming Service. Please drop by and say "Hi," if you are around during her hours.

imprisoned, Acts 12), or leading the fledgling church in Jerusalem (Acts 1).

Paul later writes, “I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength, that he considered me faithful, appointing me to his service. Even though I was once a blasphemer and a persecutor and a violent man, I was shown mercy because I acted in ignorance and unbelief. The grace of our Lord was poured out on me abundantly, along with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Here is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners— of whom I am the worst. But for that very reason I was shown mercy so that in me, the worst of sinners, Christ Jesus might display his unlimited patience as an example for those who would believe on him and receive eternal life.” (1 Timothy 1:12-16) Paul records his personal experience of a God of grace who, out of mercy, saved even him, the worst of sinners, called him, empowered him and sent him. And he reminds us that we are also saved, called, empowered and sent in the same way.

No, maybe we can't preach like Peter, nor pray like Paul. But we can tell the love of Jesus and say, “He died for all!” We have the same Spirit at work within us, with the same purpose: spreading Good News to our world, inviting others to share in the kingdom of God's glory (Gloria Dei). Let us take up the mantles of Peter and Paul, through the same power of the Holy Spirit, considering the “Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria and the ends of the world” to which we have been sent, looking beyond our sanctuary doors and into the world around us for the sake of Jesus Christ and his kingdom!

Power to you!

teaching series, with Kent Hunter

Sunday mornings at 11:00– with Pastor Pat

In this study we will discuss 27 Kingdom Concepts that are not new; they come from the New Testament. They are major paradigm shifts— and may seem very new, “feel” different, even make you uncomfortable, however, these 27 Kingdom Concepts represent several areas where Christianity has “drifted” from the biblical culture designed by God. That biblical culture, when practiced, is powerful and effective. The whole point of the Healthy Churches Thrive! adventure is to restore our thinking and behavior to the biblical model God intends— which works, to impact our world. God’s Kingdom grows when we return to the biblical basics. We cannot improve on God’s plan!

Bible Project is a nonprofit ed-tech organization and animation studio that produces 100% free Bible videos, podcasts, blogs, classes, and educational Bible resources to help make the biblical story accessible to everyone, everywhere. From page one to the final word, we believe the Bible is a unified story that leads to Jesus. This diverse collection of ancient books overflows with wisdom for our modern world. As we let the biblical story speak for itself, we believe the message of Jesus will transform individuals and entire communities.

Wednesday evenings at 7:00– with Dick and Libby Nelson

As followers of Jesus, we are called to seek the renewal of our world. Whether that’s in our families, communities, work or places of study, we believe it’s part of our call to both pray for our world, and to shape our culture for the common good. Designed to give us both the biblical foundation and practical application for how we can all play our part in the renewal of culture, the Everything Course explores the theme of cultural renewal with a different focus each week.
