2/15/2020:

Kidshammer is back for the fourth year of kids gaming, bigger and better than ever!

Kidshammer is an introduction to tabletop miniature gaming set in Games Workshop's popular Age of Sigmar fantasy universe. Think of it like a two-day intensive gaming camp.

-Saturday is all about coaching and learning to play the game, both matched play and open/narrative style. There is also an awesome 90 minute painting lesson with the uber talented and approachable Joe White of Smooth Blend Studios.

-Sunday provides the opportunity to compete in a three-round Friendly Youngbloods tournament or, alternatively, to learn how to play Warcry – a fast growing and easy to get into skirmish game set in the AoS universe.

Kidshammer is aimed at kids aged 10-15, but younger and older kids are welcome (but older kids can't compete in the tournament, and kids under 10 need to be accompanied by a parent or guardian). If you know any kids who may be interested in trying out miniature gaming, this is for them!
