

Press Release: 11/12/2020

We would like to formally invite you to our Revelations and Exodus Kickstarter Event

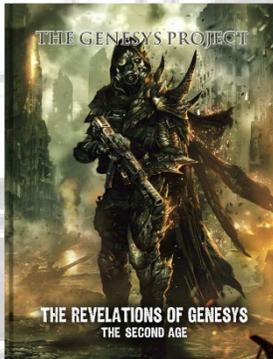

Genesys Games (genesysgames.com) has launched our next Kickstarter Campaign November 12th, 2020. Following the Birth of Genesys The First Age last year, this next campaign launches to new books The Revelations of Genesys The Second Age and The Exodus of Genesys The Third Age

Create your own faction for any of the Ages you wish to play in, then advance them into future ages to create your own incredible and epic story. The Genesys Project is a customizable tabletop wargame where you can create and customize your own faction.

The Genesys Project is organized into a single Core Rules book that covers mechanics for all three Ages. Each Age also has its own unique book with the rules to build, advance, and customize your faction, weapons, vehicles, powered armor and more.

You can find the event page here:

THE CAMPAIGN

The Revelations of Genesys: 2nd Age takes you through modern conflicts and into the near future where the Apocalypse looms and warfare takes on a whole new meaning.

Delve into customization of your modern/apocalyptic weapons, design your own vehicles of war, and fight your way through an Age where the catechisms of war loom at every corner.

The Exodus of Genesys: 3rd Age takes your faction into the distant future, expanding outwards into the abyss and new theaters of war. Cybernetics, mechs, robotics, and other mechanisms of conflict reign supreme.

In the 3rd Age, customization advances far beyond the previous ages, with new energy sources for weapons, vehicles, and mechs bringing new dangers and revealing new horizons.

The Birth of Genesys: The First Age and Core Rules: Both books were part of our 2019 Kickstarter. We are offering the Core Rules and The Birth of Genesys: 1st Age books as part of this Kickstarter as an easy means for those of you wanting to jump into the game to get complete packages.

The Core Rules - is one rulebook for all three Ages of gameplay. Inside is all that you need including Missions, Movement, Combat, and Mission Awards. Premade factions for each Domain are inside, created by backers of The Birth of Genesys Kickstarter campaign.

The Birth of Genesys: The First Age takes you into a Medieval Fantasy setting with full customization of your factions, including spell-like powers, equipment, and much more.

THE CAMPAIGN

Customized Pledges: We have so many exciting things coming in this campaign. You will be able to customize your pledge level for the Age and Ages you want in both beautiful full color Hardback books or Digital formats (which include both Hi-Res and Standard formats).

Create Your Own Faction that will be included in our Books! Exclusive Kickstarter pledge level to create a faction that will be included in the books! This is limited to only 3 per Age, and if our previous Kickstarter was any indication, these will go fast.

Stretch Goals Add- Ons: Both books will be offered in both beautiful full color Hardback books and digital versions with stretch goals providing free add-ons and expansions upon the other books with additional Faction Packs, Game Play, and Campaigns.
