

NOCF FOUNDATION LOUNGE / KEG NIGHT

August 1, 2019

When you attend NOVA Open, you quickly learn how to press the Penthouse button on the elevators. This little action will deliver you to a full-service bar with panoramic views of DC and the Potomac. More important, it will introduce you to the NOCF's Foundation Lounge where every drink benefits deserving charities!

NOVA Open has always been known as a Family Con, which may have started because Mike enlisted his mom, Laurie, to run it! The moniker is nowhere more apparent, though, than in the penthouse where Mike's aunt, Susan Perkins, manages the Foundation Lounge with his cousins and family friends.

SPONSORED KEG NIGHTS:

Keg Nights are for sponsors who wish to support the Lounge with donations - and, in return, they can podcast, take the mic, or run raffles for about two hours. This year, Remembrancer's Retreat (Wednesday), The Army Painter (Friday), and Tablewar (Sunday) will be hosting the kegs. Thursday and Saturday Keg Nights are still available; if interested, contact customerservice@novaopen.com.

LOUNGE SCHEDULE:

Expect Mimosa Mornings, and special menus for Martini Madness opening day, Thirsty Thursdays, Flaming Fridays and Star Wars Saturday. Neon Sloth will play opening night. Mike's band, No-Tie Affair will have the stage Saturday night, with Brittany Brandt opening for them. The Lounge will also host the Post-Con Celebration after the closing ceremonies on Sunday.

DONATIONS:

Donations to support the work of NOCF are gratefully accepted at <https://novaopenfoundation.org/>
