Attention all seniors thinking about making a move!

The Linda Rea Team of Real Estate One Rochester is hosting a FREE senior education course event on June 10th at 10 AM, and you won't want to miss out on the expert advice and guidance available. In addition to a light brunch and Q&A session with top, local realtor Linda Rea, we are thrilled to announce that several other guest speakers will be in attendance to provide valuable insights and answers to your burning questions.

Attorney Joe Dallo will be on hand to answer questions regarding wills and trusts, ensuring that you have all the legal information you need as you prepare to make your move.

Hollie will also be in attendance to explain what staging is and how she can help stage your home before the team puts it on the market, making sure it looks its absolute best.

In addition to these amazing speakers, we will also have guest speakers addressing topics such as understanding title work and home insurance during the moving process, and what you should or shouldn't do before the sale.

Plus, we will have live reviews from past clients who have sold homes with the help of the Linda Rea team, giving you a first-hand look at how we can make your move great.

Don't miss out on this amazing opportunity to get expert advice and guidance from a team of experienced professionals. Whether you are moving across town or state to state, let us help you be the most informed buyer and seller at the closing table.

Join us on June 10th at Real Estate One Rochester for this FREE event and leave feeling empowered and ready to make your move!
