

A Testimony for Jesus from a Restricted Area

I am from a village in China. I am 36 years old. I am married and my wife and I are blessed with one child. According to our Chinese tradition, we live together with my parents.

Just recently, I accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as my personal Savior through the ministry of a Jesus Foot Soldier, Evangelist Dee Say Hey. Before that, I was worshipping my ancestors, but deep inside, I was empty. I had no peace, no joy, and I was always afraid of what would happen after death.

One day, Evangelist Dee Say Hey was preaching in a small bamboo house in our village. He was preaching about the hope in Jesus Christ for life and for the future. He was sharing the gospel. Out of curiosity, I went in to listen. As I heard the Word of God, my heart was touched. I asked many questions, and the evangelist patiently explained the truth and prayed for me. That day, I gave my life to Jesus. I went home as a new man—filled with peace and joy.

But my parents were not happy. Instead they became angry and asked me and my family to leave the house unless I rejected Jesus. Though it was painful, my heart was full of peace in God. I left with my wife and little son to live on our own. Soon after, my wife also came to faith in Christ. Together, we prayed every day for my parents, asking God to touch their hearts.

Just a few months later, God answered our prayers. My father came looking for me with tears in his eyes. He hugged me and said, “I am sorry. We have also found the Lord Jesus Christ. Please come home.” When I returned, I discovered that my entire family, my parents and my siblings, had accepted Jesus. My mother wept and asked forgiveness for rejecting me. They had been reached through another Jesus Foot Soldier, Evangelist Chu Wai Zi. My heart overflowed with joy, and I gave glory to God.

Since then, my whole family and I have been serving the Lord. God also called me into evangelism. By God’s grace, I have led 1,460 people to Christ. In one village of 689 people, the entire village came to the Lord through this ministry. Truly, the Word of God is living and powerful.

Today, I am attending Bible school for one year to be better equipped for evangelism and church planting. My deepest desire is to finish my life serving Jesus well and bringing many more souls to Christ.

All glory belongs to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior!

Name is withheld for security reasons. Please do not post in a public area or on social media.