2026 Beauty and the Beast Jr. INFO

There is a fee for students participating in the production. The participation fee for performers is $250.00. Fees will be taken out through FACTS and divided in half for two months. This fee helps to provide some of the cast with microphones, company t-shirt, the cast party, costuming, snacks and several dinners. Cast members will be responsible for basic performance attire. Basic performance attire includes but is not limited to jazz pants, simple shirts, black/nude jazz shoes or ballet flats, socks/hose/tights, leotards, and make-up. We do not want any student discouraged from auditioning for a part due to the cost. If the fees present at financial hardship, please contact me or Mrs. Jennifer Oliver at joliver@stlukecolumbus.org

In addition to the financial obligation, students must be present and prepared for all rehearsals required for their character. A tentative schedule is attached. Please make special note of the two mandatory rehearsals and the final week of rehearsal. These are full rehearsals which require everyone, cast and crew, in attendance. Failure to attend a mandatory rehearsal will result in not being able to perform in the show.

Students must remain in good academic standing and have a clear conduct record to participate in play practices and the actual performances.

Kimetha Eysel, Musical Director

Sandy LeRoy, Backstage Director

Hillary Green and Mallory Lang, Choreographers
